Registration of Wakf properties by Law Committee

249. Sri A. R. PANCHAGAVI (Arbhavi).—

Will the Minister for Transport be pleased to state :—

(a) the expenses incurred by Government for the survey of Wakfs in the State ;

(b) whether it has come to the notice of the Government that several wakfs have been registered by a Law Committee of the Wakf Board without waiting for the Survey Report of the Commissioner for Wakfs ;

(c) whether the Survey of Wakfs has been completed, if so, when ;

(d) whether it is a fact that the Law Committee has been ordering registration of wakfs without getting the record of rights produced nor going through the reports of District Committees ;

(e) whether it is a fact that there is no duly constituted Law Committee or panel from 21st December 1967 and two persons have acted as a panel and have registered several wakfs ;

(f) whether it is a fact that some property has been registered under two or three wakfs hastily without issuing notices to the persons interested ;

(g) whether it is a fact that there are allegations that the officers of the Board are neither supplying nor allowing inspection of documents by parties or advocates ;

(h) whether it is a fact that all this has resulted in a flood of litigation cases including Writ Petitons ;

(i) the steps Government has taken to prevent such injustice and harassment to the public ?

Sri MOHAMED ALI (Minister for Transport).—
